Top Teams Meet In 32-Tilt Schedule

Just Some Stuff From Here and There In Sports

By Fred Tharp
(News-Journal Sports Editor)

NOW THAT LITTLE Tippy Dye has left the Ohio State coaching staff for greener financial fields out west, don't be surprised if a boom is launched to put a Buckeye scholastic coach into the Buck cage spot. . . . Some sections have already mentioned Carl Bachman of Findlay's Trojans as the logical man to take over at State. . . . Bachman's teams have won 93 of 97 games in the last four years. . . . The one drawback to making the job a "real" attractive one might be the depletion of material around the Buck campus. . . . But that phase wouldn't last long if an Ohio high school mentor garnered the job. . . . His colleagues would see that enough good talent wound up at the Columbus school. . . . Tippy, of course, left after turning out probably the greatest aggregation in the history of the Bucks. . . .Dick Larkins, State athletic director, says it will be several weeks before a successor is named so Buckeye coaches (high school) have plenty of time to boom one of their number for the "plum."

WHILE ON THE SUBJECT of putting a high school coach in at Ohio State, what would be wrong with Vern "Baldy" Hoffman, of the terrific Tygers, for the spot. . . . Vern has proven himself one of the best in scholastic ranks over the last 22 years when his teams have won more than 75 percent of their games. . . . He's been at Senior high school some 11 years and his teams have played the toughest the state has had to offer in those seasons. . . . In the past two campaigns, Hoffman's teams have won 41 of 52 games and reached the round of eight in 1949 and the round of four in 1950. . . . That's the most consistent record in the state. . . . We've heard rumors that Hoffman has turned down a couple of small college offers to remain with the Tygers because "it's the best high school coaching spot in the state and the best town." . . . But we're sure Vern would welcome an opportunity to move to the top cage job in Ohio and the Bucks would be glad to get the veteran perfectionist.

MANSFIELD'S BASEBALL diamond deficiency has cleared more than somewhat in the last week but is far from solved. . . . The John Todd park, Mansfield Tire and fairgrounds fields became available for Hot Stove league junior baseball. . . . But two or three more diamonds are a dire necessity. . . . At least, one more is needed to care for twilight junior games while more than that would assure Mansfield's adult teams of a place to practice. . . . There will be no practice time under the present situation. . . . Announcement of the availability of one and possibly two diamonds at the fairgrounds was made yesterday by Lawrence Sampsel of the Eagles team of the National Hot Stove circuit. . . . Sampsel says one diamond is ready for use now, although the outfield is still a little rough. . . . Grading and scraping for the diamond was furnished by junior baseball enthusiasts. . . . Sampsel says quite a bit of grading is needed to carve out a second diamond. . . . Of course, backstops are needed but Hot Stove officials are working on that phase now. . . . Sampsel says only one carnival is booked at the fairgrounds which might "tear up" the diamond.

A. C. JENKINS choice as captain of the all-Ohio track squad yesterday gave Mansfield Senior high an unprecedented sweep of state scholastic sport honors. . . . The Tygers won the state grid title and Coach Augie Morningstar was named mentor of the year. . . . Ken McCally was chosen Ohio's finest basketball athlete, Ed Demyan was the most "honored" football lineman and Jenkins copped all Class A track honors. . . . Incidentally a check of the baseball records show that McCally won his second straight Senior high school batting championship. . . . In the original release of swat marks, Charlie Marchant had 21 hits in 56 trips for a mark of .375 while McCally had 12 of 33 for .364. . . . However, the recheck gave the classy catcher two more hits in 37 trips for a .379 average—making him the top hitter two years in a row. . . . That hole-in-one by Bill Beam at Westbrook Friday was the first in two years at the Country club. . . . He canned a 152-yard shot with a three-iron on No. 9. . . . Pro Tom Raklets is now busy seeking to find all of the companies which gives special awards for "ace" shooters.

SOME 25 CITIES will be represented in Hot Stove junior baseball district competition this year. . . . The teams will play in three district meets to qualify for state competition. . . . Mansfield teams won two state Hot Stove titles in 1949. . . . A third division (11-12 years of age) has been added to the '50 docket. . . . Competing in the Mansfield district will be Mansfield, Wooster, Willard, Chillicothe, Ashland, Mt. Vernon and Orrville. . . . Sites and arrangements for district meets will be completed within the next month. . . . Jeromesville high school will be represented in the six-man football field this fall and will have a new lighted field. . . . Bob Davenport will coach the Jerries who will play in a Tri-County league. . . . Other Ashland county schools in the circuit are Perrysville and Hayesville. . . . Records show that golfers purchase 25,000,000 golf balls a season, and some 50 percent are lost. . . . If we didn't lose so many, we would consider forming a lost-ball detective agency. . . . The business would be "roaring."

Undefeated Softballers To Collide

A huge schedule of 32 games faces Mansfield's legion of softball teams this week.

Many of the games involve the dwindling list of unbeaten teams. Two clashes of perfect record outfits are listed Monday in the Recreation league, Hamilton Realty playing Leedy Electric and Sports Headquarters going against Martin Steel.

Thursday, Four Square Gospel meets First Congregational in another unbeaten team battle.

The International league throws Doc Hamman's against Tom's Restaurant Friday. Hamman's has copped three straight while the Restaurant nine is unbeaten in two games.

Shifts of three league games was announced yesterday by Stan Kamen of the city recreation department. The First Presbyterian-St. Matthew's contest was moved from North Lake park to Mansfield Tire field.

The Moorhead Fords game with Lumbermens was upped from Wednesday to Monday at Liberty park while the News-Journal "M" Association clash was shifted from June 12 to next Thursday at Gorman-Rupp field.

Playoffs Set This Week For NCAA Baseball Meet

NEW YORK—(AP)—Playoffs in four districts this week and a meeting of the selection committee in another will complete the eight-team field for the 1950 National Collegiate A.A. baseball championship.

The tournament at Omaha, Neb., June 15-22 will have one team from each NCAA district, twice as many as competed last year. They will play on a "double knockout" basis.

Three teams already have won their places in the finals. Washington State beat Stanford for the Pacific Coast conference title and the district eight nomination; Bradley knocked out Nebraska in two games in the district five playoff and Rutgers was chosen by the district two selection committee.

Playoffs are scheduled to start Monday in the sixth (southwest) and seventh (Rocky mountain) districts, each involving two teams. More elaborate four-team affairs will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday in district three (south) and four (midwest). Only the first (New England) district remains uncertain, largely because the season for most teams still is unfinished. The committee probably will name a representative early this week.

Wisconsin, which shared the Big Ten title with Michigan; Western Michigan and Ohio university, which finished one-two in the Mid-America conference, and Michigan State, picked as the outstanding "independent" in the area, will contest for the district four title, on Michigan State's field at East Lansing.

Bucks AAU Victor; Meister In Fourth

DAYTON—Ohio State university's track and field team captured five of the 15 events yesterday to win handily the state Amateur Athletic Union Track meet here.

The defending champion Bucks ground out 52 points to nearly double the score on their nearest rivals, the Falcon Athletic club of Bowling Green State university.

Two Mansfield high school stars—A. C. Jenkins and Jim Meister—competed in the meet which was run off in a driving rain. Meister, the 1950 high school state champ, placed fourth in the pole vault while Jenkins, trying the college high hurdles for the first time, failed to place.

Ollie Cline, three-time state champ at Mansfield, dropped out at 11 feet in the sloppy going. Meister made 12 feet—eight inches under his mark last week in the state meet.

Bucky Walters of Miami U. won the pole vaule with a leap of 13 feet while two Ohio Staters—McKnight and Bruney—tied for second.

However, another former Mansfield Senior high star, Marty Bricker, took down a third in the high sticks. He is a sophomore at Miami.

Individual stars were Len Truex, Ohio State soph, who won the mile and placed second in the two mile, and Mal Whitfield, who copped both the 440 and 880. Whitfield, who represented Ohio State in the last Olympics, is now running for the Army.

Gene Strathman, 1949 Mansfield Relays record breaker in the discus throw, placed third in his specialty and fifth in the shot put.

Earl Putman, the Cincinnati Hughes husky, who set a new Mansfield Relays shot put record this year, and who placed second in the discus throw, was third in the college shot and fourth in the discus yesterday.

Ohio State's Bill Miller copped the shot and discus.

Riggs Chooses Kramer to Win Pro Net Title

CLEVELAND — — Defending champion Bobby Riggs thinks Jack Kramer of Los Angeles will win the national professional tennis championships which open here Monday.

"Kramer should win," Riggs declared, adding quickly that "I expect to be right up in there."

But another leading contender, Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Calif., predicted. "Kramer won't get into the finals."

Kramer won the 1948 championship, but did not defend his title last year.

Riggs, also of Los Angeles, ventured that Kovacs and Frank Parker of Milwaukee have "outside chances" at the title. He considers Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador as the "dark horse" in the net tilt.

Kovacs, the "Clown prince" of tennis, said too many tough players are gunning for Kramer in this week-long tournament.

"Furthermore, the slower clay courts are not to his liking," Kovacs said.

Of himself, Kovacs offered: "Guess I'm like wine growing better with age. I've never played better."

Tournament officials gave first round byes in the singles to Riggs, Parker, Seguar and Welby Van Haron of Philadelphia, abandoning seeking and thus avoiding naming a player for the number one rating. Kramer, however, was placed against Billy Doeg of Pittsburgh in the first round.

SEEDED FIRST

In the doubles, Van Horn and Kovacs were seeded first, Kramer and Riggs second, both pairs drawing first round byes. Segura and Parker were seeded third. Their first round opponents will be Lloyd Budge of willoughby, O., and John Hendix of Cleveland. Seeded fourth were Carl Earn of Los Angeles and Johnny Faunce of Burbank, Calif.

Proceeds from the matches will be given to the Jackson Memorial Laboratory association for cancer research.

Kudika Gets Mound Call For Legion

Right hander Tom Kudika has been nominated to pitch for the Post 16 American Legion junior baseball team next Saturday when the Legionnaires open their season against the Bucyrus A. L. club in Bucyrus.

The remainder of the lineup has also been set by manager Dewey Durant. The starting infield will consist of Marty Keipp at first base, Larry Schreck of Plymouth at second, Tom Maurer at short stop, and Jim Altamonte at third base. Bill Keulling, Mike Chukuloff, and George Dawkins are to be in left, center, and right field respectively.

Ken McCally will handle the catching chores if he feels that he has fully recovered from the injury which has sidelined him for the past several weeks. If McCally is not ready, Gene Kleer, another Senior high athlete, will be behind the bat.

Kudika, who hurled very capably for the Madison high school baseball team during the past season, is one of three flingers being retained on the squad. Fred Zahn and Chet Burns, both rightlanders, are the other two. Although never pitching an inning of baseball prior to the last high school campaign, Kudika has shown rapid development and has been the most impressive of the twirlers in early workouts.

Other youngsters who are assured berths on the Legion squad are Infielders Whitey Strang, and Ed Deeds, and Outfielders Carroll Pritchard, and iether Carl Snyder or Ken Woerth.

Four games have been added to the schedule. The Legionnaires will play home and home games with both the Marion and Coshocton Legion teams, but definite dates for the contests have not been set.

The Mansfield club is to play five engagements with AL units from Bucyrus, Loudonville, and Galion prior to the county playoff duel with Shelby.

Evans, Togo Battle to Draw; Midgets Back Next Saturday

In one of the hardest-fought matches ever staged at the Ashland Rd. armory, Don "One-Man" Gant, Evans and the Great Togo wrestled to a thrilling one-hour draw in the pro wrestling main event last night.

The match was chock full of fireworks from start to end and the fans were on the edge of their seats the whole distance. Neither grappler could gain a fall in the match which Promoter Clete Kauffman called "one of the greatest we've ever had in Mansfield."

After the bruising finale, Kauffman announced that the four battling midgets would be back next Saturday "by popular demand." Ticket for the show are on sale at the City News.

Gentleman Fred Bozie performing at his wild and wooly best, won the semi-final go in two straight falls over Dennis Clary, Mr. California of 1949. Bozie copped the first one in 24:07 and the second in 4:02. Clary was subbing for Tom Bradley.
